He began his legal journey in 2015, working as an office manager for a court reporting firm. Ricky went on to complete his undergraduate degree and graduated from law school, focusing on business litigation and labor & employment law.

Prior to joining Smith Freed Eberhard, Ricky's experience focused on public entity, automotive, and commercial liability defense at a boutique defense firm in California.

Personal Life

Originally from Los Angeles, Ricky moved to Oregon for law school and fell in love with the Pacific Northwest. He embraced Oregon's outdoor activities and developed an appreciation for its hidden viticulture.

Outside of work, Ricky enjoys reading history books, playing strategy games, and honing his cooking skills. He stays busy with his better half and their two adventurous dogs, who never hesitate to jump into puddles.
